

ARTS & COMMUNITY IN THORNBURY

Another Chance To View Special Pictures!

A few weeks ago, it was announced that ACT (Arts and Community in Thornbury) was bringing to Thornbury Castle, courtesy of Manager Mr Brian Jarvis, a special performance of Pictures of Perfection. Written and performed by Barbie Davies as Cassandra and Sarah Wiggins as Jane, it illustrated not only the fascinating relationship between the two Austen sisters, but also their lives, their homes and family members, plus, of course, their loves, all of which influenced Jane's writing so much.

Within 24 hours of this announcement, however, every single one of the 70 seats available had been sold! The afternoon, which included tea, was so successful, however, that ACT has decided to repeat Pictures of Perfection in February, 2010, so look out for news of this special event, as it is likely to prove equally popular!

ACT (Arts and Community in Thornbury) is a charity which was formed with the sole purpose of building a theatre-based arts complex in Thornbury and its exciting programme of arts events over the past couple of years has not only been organised to illustrate the wealth of talent in this area, but also to raise funds and stimulate interest in this thrilling project. Currently, positive talks between representatives of ACT and the Armstrong Hall Complex Trustees are proceeding well and it is hoped that the aspirations of the two groups can be successfully combined to bring about a wonderful result for Thornbury and a huge area around it. For more information on ACT, visit our website: www.ACTthornbury.org.uk and why not call into Thornbury Town Hall to purchase your copy of The Wigan Girls calendar for just £7.50 and solve your Christmas present dilemmas!*

Photos: Left to right, Indignant Jane, Cassandra and Jane in reflective mood*

